

BATAVIA

BROCCOLI

Very early variety, medium sized, very solid head with a fresh green colour. A warm weather variety with solid, dark domed heads. High yielding and easy to clean. Kupola shape of very fine buds. For spring-summer production. Most tolerant to low temperatures - no flower opening.

Growing Days Planting INT : 59-68

Varieties perform differently under different climatic conditions, and are usually only suitable for specific markets. For more elaborate information about this variety in a specific market, visit the assortments on our country websites, via www.bejo.com/countries. Our local crop specialists are happy to give additional tailor-made advise.