

WIROSA

SAVOY CABBAGE

Strong growth, bubbly heads, excellent against frost. For short storage also. Excellent quality with long standing ability. Finely blistered leaves with a vigorous plant habit. Usual maturity period October-February.

Growing Days Planting INT :	135
-----------------------------	-----

Plants per Ha INT (x 1.000) :	25-35
-------------------------------	-------

Varieties perform differently under different climatic conditions, and are usually only suitable for specific markets. For more elaborate information about this variety in a specific market, visit the assortments on our country websites, via www.bejo.com/countries. Our local crop specialists are happy to give additional tailor-made advice.