

MARTE

BRUSSELS SPROUTS

A tall plant producing great tasting sprouts that are smooth, dark and round. Marte is high yielding and has good standing ability. Very vigorous high yielding variety. Marte has good standing ability and excellent button quality. The large button size helps with the reduction in yellow leaf. Harvest period is October-November.

Growing Days Planting INT : 145

Varieties perform differently under different climatic conditions, and are usually only suitable for specific markets. For more elaborate information about this variety in a specific market, visit the assortments on our country websites, via www.bejo.com/countries. Our local crop specialists are happy to give additional tailor-made advise.