

HEMERA BRUSSELS SPROUTS

Very late variety that produces mainly 31-41 mm sized sprouts, suitable for fresh market purposes. Medium high plants with a good standing ability and high frost and bolting tolerance. Suitable for mechanical cleaning. Growing days after planting: 255.

Growing Days Planting INT : 255

Varieties perform differently under different climatic conditions, and are usually only suitable for specific markets. For more elaborate information about this variety in a specific market, visit the assortments on our country websites, via www.bejo.com/countries. Our local crop specialists are happy to give additional tailor-made advise.