

VASARI

RADICCHIO ROSSO

Vasari is suitable for summer production, is compact and it is a variety with a good bolting tolerance. It has an excellent deep red color, also during higher temperatures. A Beacon type with a more intense colour. Very uniform and high yielding. Bred specifically for warmer climates.

Growing Days Planting INT : 70-85

Type Crop INT : Chioggia

Varieties perform differently under different climatic conditions, and are usually only suitable for specific markets. For more elaborate information about this variety in a specific market, visit the assortments on our country websites, via www.bejo.com/countries. Our local crop specialists are happy to give additional tailor-made advice.