

CONSERVOR SHALLOT

Mid season variety with elongated bulbs of exceptional quality. The bulbs have red/brown skins and a nice white flesh. High yielding and stores well. A high yielding variety with a nice long elongated French-type shape.

Varieties perform differently under different climatic conditions, and are usually only suitable for specific markets. For more elaborate information about this variety in a specific market, visit the assortments on our country websites, via www.bejo.com/countries. Our local crop specialists are happy to give additional tailor-made advise.