

RED SPRING ONION

A nice red coloured overwintering variety. Suits very well in semi short and semi long day areas. Has a nice globe shape and really suitable for fresh market.

Type Crop INT : Japanese, red

Varieties perform differently under different climatic conditions, and are usually only suitable for specific markets. For more elaborate information about this variety in a specific market, visit the assortments on our country websites, via www.bejo.com/countries. Our local crop specialists are happy to give additional tailor-made advise.