

BRIDGER ONION

A mid early overwintering type onion in semi long day areas. Produces semi globe shaped bulbs. Bridger has a nice yellow colour and a good bolting tolerance.

Type Crop INT : Japanese, yellow

Varieties perform differently under different climatic conditions, and are usually only suitable for specific markets. For more elaborate information about this variety in a specific market, visit the assortments on our country websites, via www.bejo.com/countries. Our local crop specialists are happy to give additional tailor-made advise.