

TROY ONION

Troy is round onion with dark color. The variety is suitable for overwintering and early spring planting because of its high bolting tolerance.

Type Crop INT : Yellow

Varieties perform differently under different climatic conditions, and are usually only suitable for specific markets. For more elaborate information about this variety in a specific market, visit the assortments on our country websites, via www.bejo.com/countries. Our local crop specialists are happy to give additional tailor-made advise.