

MONJABLANCA

ONION

Our first F1 in the short day white Grano type. It is very uniform and has a nice bright white skin. Very suitable for the Mexican market.

Varieties perform differently under different climatic conditions, and are usually only suitable for specific markets. For more elaborate information about this variety in a specific market, visit the assortments on our country websites, via www.bejo.com/countries. Our local crop specialists are happy to give additional tailor-made advise.
