

ANTARES

FENNEL

New variety with strong tolerance to bolting and cracking. Medium sized, flat, round bulbs that are very white. Suited to summer production and allows on nicely from Solaris in a continuity programme. Maturity approximately 72 days after transplanting.

Growing Days Planting INT : 70

Shape Product INT : highround/round

Varieties perform differently under different climatic conditions, and are usually only suitable for specific markets. For more elaborate information about this variety in a specific market, visit the assortments on our country websites, via www.bejo.com/countries. Our local crop specialists are happy to give additional tailor-made advise.