

NEVIS CARROT

Mid early Nantes hybrid. Produces long, well filled roots with very good internal colour and healthy tops. Very smooth.

Varieties perform differently under different climatic conditions, and are usually only suitable for specific markets. For more elaborate information about this variety in a specific market, visit the assortments on our country websites, via www.bejo.com/countries. Our local crop specialists are happy to give additional tailor-made advise.