

NELIX CARROT

Mid early Nantes type. Grows well in dry conditions. Produces strong and well-filled carrots with a good internal and external colour.

Varieties perform differently under different climatic conditions, and are usually only suitable for specific markets. For more elaborate information about this variety in a specific market, visit the assortments on our country websites, via www.bejo.com/countries. Our local crop specialists are happy to give additional tailor-made advise.