

RAINBOW CARROT

This variety produces carrots with mixed colours, includes white, yellow and orange. Fine, long, cylindrical roots with strong foliage. Unique hybrid with white, yellow, orange, and coral roots. Rainbow is a single variety with color variability that will mature uniformly unlike colored carrot mixes.

Growing Days Sowing INT : 95

---

Varieties perform differently under different climatic conditions, and are usually only suitable for specific markets. For more elaborate information about this variety in a specific market, visit the assortments on our country websites, via www.bejo.com/countries. Our local crop specialists are happy to give additional tailor-made advise.