

NEWHALL CARROT

For continental climate. Recommended particularly for heavier soils. Smooth roots with very strong leaves. Good storability. Continental Nantes, strong tops, resists cracking, productive, very uniform, good storage.

Varieties perform differently under different climatic conditions, and are usually only suitable for specific markets. For more elaborate information about this variety in a specific market, visit the assortments on our country websites, via www.bejo.com/countries. Our local crop specialists are happy to give additional tailor-made advice.