

NORFOLK CARROT

Mid-early Nantes type, Compact and smooth roots with nice flavor. Nice washing carrot for milder climates. Mid-season maturing variety with very vigorous, healthy and upright foliage. Norfolk produces very attractive, smooth, bright and cylindrical roots. Approximately 109 days from sowing to maturity. Commercially proven higher resistance to cavity spot.

Varieties perform differently under different climatic conditions, and are usually only suitable for specific markets. For more elaborate information about this variety in a specific market, visit the assortments on our country websites, via www.bejo.com/countries. Our local crop specialists are happy to give additional tailor-made advice.