

BRAVA CARROT

Promising new variety with a very high yield. Vigorous berlicummer with erect, dark green foliage and cylindrical long and strong roots with a good uniformity. Produces crack tolerant carrots with an excellent external and internal color. Good storable Berlin type. Growing days after sowing: 120

Growing Days Sowing INT : 130

Varieties perform differently under different climatic conditions, and are usually only suitable for specific markets. For more elaborate information about this variety in a specific market, visit the assortments on our country websites, via www.bejo.com/countries. Our local crop specialists are happy to give additional tailor-made advise.