

BERLICUM 2 - ROMOSA

CARROT

Mid early Berlicum type. Produces long slightly tapered, stump rooted carrots. This is a high yielding variety

Varieties perform differently under different climatic conditions, and are usually only suitable for specific markets. For more elaborate information about this variety in a specific market, visit the assortments on our country websites, via www.bejo.com/countries. Our local crop specialists are happy to give additional tailor-made advise.