

REDLANDER ONION

The first red onion that is highly resistant against downy mildew (Pd). Redlander is a nice round onion which is suitable for long term storage. (Very) long day.

Varieties perform differently under different climatic conditions, and are usually only suitable for specific markets. For more elaborate information about this variety in a specific market, visit the assortments on our country websites, via www.bejo.com/countries. Our local crop specialists are happy to give additional tailor-made advise.