

LIRIA CAULIFLOWER

Produces medium size curds with fine structure and good wrap with leaves opening up at harvest. Suitable for summer and early autumn harvest. 80 day maturing variety. Upright habit allows this variety to be a two cut product.

Growing Days Planting INT : 75-88

Varieties perform differently under different climatic conditions, and are usually only suitable for specific markets. For more elaborate information about this variety in a specific market, visit the assortments on our country websites, via www.bejo.com/countries. Our local crop specialists are happy to give additional tailor-made advise.