

CUMULUS

ASPARAGUS

Excellent tasting white asparagus, better suited to cool climates. Very high yielding..Hybrid of smooth, uniform product - excellent quality. Production under photoisolated folium. 4 plants/m2 - 40 000/ha recommended density. Hybrid of smooth, uniform product - excellent quality. Production under photoisolated folium. Cumulus is a 100% male variety which is particularly suited for white production. The tips are uniform, thick, high quality and well closed. The variety is early maturing.

Type Crop INT : Cold areas

Varieties perform differently under different climatic conditions, and are usually only suitable for specific markets. For more elaborate information about this variety in a specific market, visit the assortments on our country websites, via www.bejo.com/countries. Our local crop specialists are happy to give additional tailor-made advise.