

BACCHUS ASPARAGUS

An early green, 100% anthocyaan free hybrid. Smooth, straight and relatively thick spears. UK: Bacchus is an 100% male early variety that is anthocyanin-free. Produces high yields with excellent, uniform stem quality and good tip closure.

Type Crop INT : Cold areas

Varieties perform differently under different climatic conditions, and are usually only suitable for specific markets. For more elaborate information about this variety in a specific market, visit the assortments on our country websites, via www.bejo.com/countries. Our local crop specialists are happy to give additional tailor-made advise.